

Chairman and proprietary director at Iberdrola Energía España, S.A.

Proprietary director, industrial engineer (UPV, Bilbao). Post-graduate studies in Business Administration (IESE, Madrid).

Married, with three children.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE:

Energy sector

He is currently the managing director of the Iberdrola Group's Retail Business, in charge of retailing activities and operations in Iberdrola's energy markets globally, with a special focus on decarbonisation solutions for industrial and residential customers. From July 2006 to January 2016 he was the retail director at the Iberdrola Group, responsible for a portfolio of more than 20 million clients in Europe as well as the development and coordination of Iberdrola's global retail business.

He is the chairman of the board of directors at Scottish Power Retail Holdings Ltd., Iberdrola Generación México, S.A. de C.V. and at NC Energia S.A..

He joined Iberdrola in 1994 after starting his career in the engineering and consulting company IDOM.

During his first years at Iberdrola he worked in the Planning and Studies direction. Later he was appointed head of the Power & Emissions Trading department.

